Market Opens with Wild Scenes and Prices Away Down, but Finally Rallies on Heavy Buying Due to Crop Fright.

There was a wild opening in the coton market to-day, prices breaking from to 60 points on nervousness still existing over the Government estimates of the year's crop. Following the call, prices rallied all around.

There were large orders on both sides of the market, and trade was too heavy to pick out much undivided business but one leading house bid for a black of 10,000 bales of January on call. Prices fluctuated several points between sales, reflecting the feverish conition of the market and even below the 8-cent level there was no change in the bearish sentiment of many traders. The action of the large bears in cov-The action of the large bears in covering their lines, however, was taken by some to mean that they believed prices low enough for the time being at any rate.

The opening prices were: December. 7.55 to 7.60; January, 7.56 to 7.57; February, 7.65 to 7.68; Masch, 7.69 to 7.67; April, 7.65 offered; May, 7.79 to 7.80; June, 7.59 to 7.81; July, 8.5 The late prices were: January, 7.62; March, 7.79; May, 7.89; July, 7.56

SUGAR WRIT DENIED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.-The Suday denied the applications for writs can Sugar Refining Company, of New York, versus the United States, thus in effect affirming the decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, which sustained the Government. The suit was brought by the nugar refiners to test the validity of Treasury regulations allowing for the temperature modification of the polariscopic test of sugar brought into the United States.
